JOIN US FOR ROUND 1 OF THE
FIA WORLD ENDURANCE
CHAMPIONSHIP SILVERSTONE
16 APRIL 2017

For the fourth year running the FIA World Endurance Championship season returns to Silverstone. Le Mans style endurance racing has hooked generations of fans since the first 24 hours of Le Mans held in 1923 and 92 years later the racing is a mixture of Le Mans Prototypes and GT cars where anything can happen.

Drivers will compete for the Royal Automobile Club Tourist Trophy. This trophy was first awarded in 1905 and is the world's oldest motorsport trophy still being competed for.

Take in the view from your own dedicated trackside balcony on the inside of the famous circuit as the cars negotiate the renowned Brooklands and Luffield corners before accelerating hard into Woodcote and onto National Pits Straight.

If you are looking to match the thrill of the track with fantastic hospitality, then look no further than Brooklands hospitality at Silverstone.
