ACCESS FOR RESIDENTS

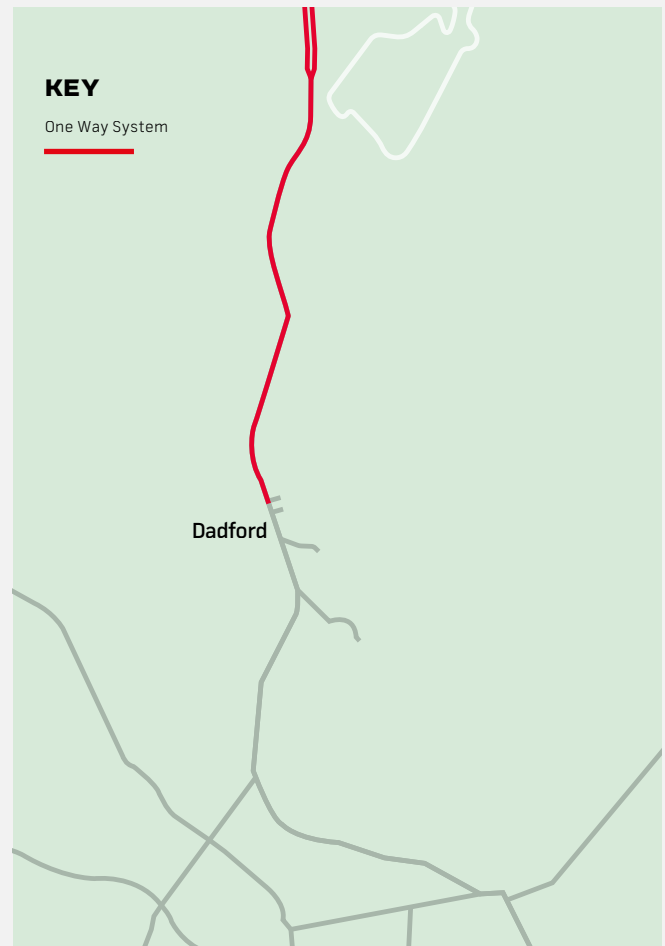

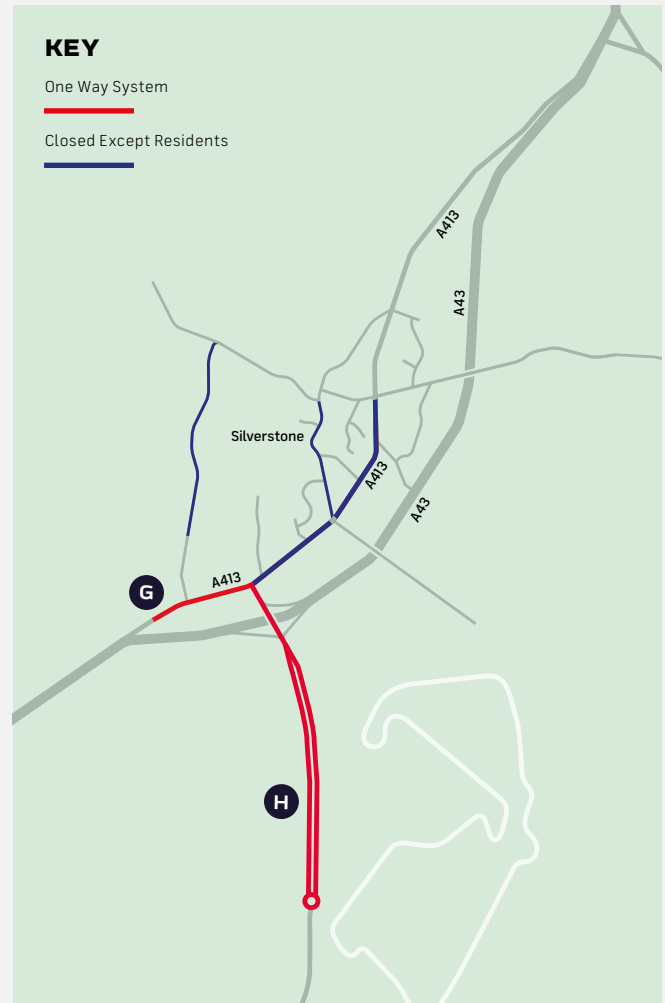

- ⇒ Residents labels included with this leaflet should be displayed in cars and viewable to our traffic stewards.
- ⇒ Our stewards will not be allowed to provide access across closed roads unless it is safe to do so, so please bear with them during busy periods.
- ⇒ It will not guarantee “right of access” and you should still comply with directions and temporary road signs, especially one-way systems.
- ⇒ Residents labels do NOT allow parking in any areas where coned restrictions are in force during the event period.
- ⇒ Cars parked in areas with temporary coned parking restrictions can receive penalty notices, the label does not override these regulations.

SILVERSTONE & WHITTLEBURY VILLAGE RESIDENTS

- ⇒ Road closures will be put in place – shown in blue, with taxis and event traffic exempt, directed to car parks via signage and stewards.
- ⇒ Residents will be allowed access through. However, at busy times it is advisable to consider alternative routes where possible.
High Street, Silverstone will not be accessible from A413 (opposite Winterhills). Residents will need to access via The White Horse Pub/Crofts Stores end.
- ⇒ One-way systems will be in place:
G-H inbound AM.
- ⇒ When one-way systems are in force residents will need to follow the flow of traffic.
- ⇒ A43 Silverstone off-slip northbound (G) closed PM only.
- ⇒ Local footpaths and bridleways around the circuit will be closed on Saturday and Sunday. However, residents will be allowed access. Please be aware that these public rights of way pass through areas that will be busy during the event.

DADFORD VILLAGE RESIDENTS

- ⇒ Access for Dadford residents will always be allowed during the event.
- ⇒ Please display the Residents Label to assist our traffic stewards.
- ⇒ Dadford village residents are advised to enter and leave the village via Stowe.
- ⇒ Dadford Road will be one-way southbound (Buckingham direction) from South entrance/ West 10 roundabout to north of Dadford village on Sunday.
